Welcome to MissionConnexion Northwest 2023!

What happens when a person responds to God's prompting and says he or she is ready to follow the Lord wherever he leads?
If this is a question you have pondered, then you have come to the right place.

The Lord asked in Isaiah 6:8: "Whom shall I send?" and the prophet responded by faith exclaiming, "Here am I send me!" It is our desire that you come to this event expectantly, with a willingness to hear from the Lord, and on multiple intentional and intuitive levels, say honestly before the Lord . . . Here I am . . . What's Next?"

Bill MacLeod
Director, MissionConnexion

Welcome to MissionConnexion! We're so excited that you're joining us this year.

Sunset Church is honored to host this event that brings so many churches together—all with the passion to change the world locally and globally through missions, through Christ. Our church's mission is to make disciples of all the nations—who are being transformed into the likeness of Christ. From our local, regional, and global outreach efforts, missions is such an integral part of Sunset. And what an amazing event to host! We believe God will move and do powerful things throughout our time as we learn, connect, and be empowered together.

God bless you,
Steve Ruetschle
Senior Pastor, Sunset Church

KEYNOTE SPEAKERS:

Dr. Eric Anthony Joseph

Dr. Joseph completed his education at Biola University. His degrees include a BA in Communications with an emphasis in radio, television, and film, M.Div. in Bible Exposition, MACEd in Christian Education, EdD in Intercultural Studies, and (exchanged for) a Ph.D. in Intercultural Education. During Dr. Joseph's stint as an educator, he held several university leadership roles and Perry Publishing and Broadcasting named him Educator of the Year for the State of Oklahoma. He also appeared in Who's Who Among America's Teachers as one of the most prominent teachers in America. As the 1985 National Christian Colleges Athletic Association (NCCAA) Male Athlete of the Year in track and field, Dr. Joseph understands the demands of a Christian student-athlete. In high school, he was invited to participate in the Junior Olympics.

William Franklin Graham IV

Will Graham is Vice President and Associate Evangelist of the Billy Graham Evangelistic Association, and Executive Director of the Billy Graham Training Center at The Cove in Asheville, N.C. The third generation of Grahams to proclaim the Good News of Jesus Christ under the banner of the BGEA, Will has shared the gospel with more than one million people across six continents since beginning his evangelistic ministry in 2006. Will and his wife, Kendra, have two daughters, Christine Jane (CJ) and Rachel Austin, and a son, William Franklin Graham V (Quinn), and live in the mountains of North Carolina.

Steve Richardson

Steve was raised in Indonesia, where his parents took the gospel to a jungle tribe, a story documented in his father's missionary classic, Peace Child.

Steve and his wife Arlene returned to Southeast Asia in 1986 to plant churches among a major Muslim unreached people group. With their team of 40 coworkers, they developed an innovative approach to church planting called Lampstand. Steve helped start a center for evangelism, various media ministries, English language schools, and a major "business as mission" project. Later they moved to Australia where they helped launch Pioneers in Australia and New Zealand. Since 1999 Steve Richardson has served as President of Pioneers-USA. Pioneers now has approximately 340 teams that are impacting over 500 unreached people groups. The Richardsons have four grown daughters and 11 grandchildren.

Dr. Mary Ho

Dr. Mary Ho is the International Executive Leader of All Nations, a global Christian missions organization with workers making disciples and church planting in 45 countries. Dr. Ho is passionate about finishing the Great Commission in this generation by sharing the love of God among every people and in parts of the world where the name of Jesus Christ is little or not known. Dr. Ho received her Doctor of Strategic Leadership from Regent University in Virginia in 2016.

EVENT EMCEE: Georgene Rice

Georgene has been a talk show host with KPDQ for more than 20 years and has traveled internationally as a station correspondent. In 2003 Georgene served as the chief spokesman and debater for the Defense of Marriage Coalition, which successfully amended Oregon's constitution. In addition to professional roles, Georgene has "said yes" to serving on many short-term mission trips and certainly uses her worship and communication gifts in all kinds of ways locally in media.

WORSHIP: Phil Church

Worship is led by Phil Church and team with Sunset Church.

MP3S: Recordings will be available after the conference. Plenary speakers will be streamed live on our website. Please go to www.missionconnexion.global for more information.

Apologetics Student Center	How to Answer EVERY Hard Question Brian Overholt Has a hard question about the Bible or Christianity ever stopped you in your tracks? Have you felt unqualified to defend your faith? Come learn basic critical thinking and analysis skills that will equip you to answer EVERY hard question!	Answering the Top Five Most Common Objections to Christianity Adrian Toader Many of the common attacks against our faith can be boiled down to just a few basic root objections. Come learn how to engage on these common topics and provide answers that are biblical, logical, and convincing!		Deconstruction: Dealing with Doubt David Hazen We increasingly hear stories of long-time Christians rejecting their faith. What is driving this phenomenon? How should we engage with those facing doubt? Walk through a biblical and practical approach to addressing doubt in our lives or in support of friends and family.	How we KNOW the Bible Is TRUE Roy Swart The Bible is the foundation of our Christian faith. Unfortunately, many Christians can't defend why the Bible is TRUE. This workshop will turbo-boost your confidence in your faith and your ability to defend it.
Business as Mission Room 174	How Missional Professionals Bless the Nations Larry Sharp Hear the stories of missional professionals working in unreached parts of the 10/40 window and using their job skills and God-given passion to reach people for Jesus.	A Business Framework for Sustainability in Mission Debra Schlaht and Brian Buhler Explore a current working model for using business development for sustainable community transformation.		Four Life-Changing Trauma-Informed Businesses James Dirksen Take a virtual tour of four businesses that harness the power of the gospel in the marketplace in India, Uganda, Kenya and the U.S. and provide workplaces where people can heal, grow and be transformed by the gospel.	Best Practices for Transformational Business Mike Miller and Brian Buhler Draw out best practices and lessons learned from two business case studies in different cultures, one in agriculture and the other in data entry outsourcing. Explore social, intellectual, physical and spiritual transformation.
Christ-Centered Community Transformation Room 172	Working with Women to Bring Transformation Maggie Conrad and Kelly Pick Physical, spiritual and relational well-being impact all of life. Find out how the simple CHE method has transformed women, their families and communities. Learn how you can make a difference in the developing world or wherever you live and work.	Men Matter: Training Men in Women's Issues Verne Pick Teaching women without also teaching men is like clapping with one hand. Men have the power to bless their families or destroy them. Learn how to help men find purpose, build stronger relationships and bring physical, spiritual and relational healing to their families.		Community Development among the Poor Terry Dalrymple Learn principles and practices for catalyzing Christ-centered transformational movements that multiply disciples while lifting whole communities out of cycles of poverty and disease. Come gain access to resources and partnerships to strengthen and expand the impact of your work.	Integrating Discipleship and Community Health Charlotte D. Integral Disciple-Making Movements (IDMM) bring together community health evangelism (CHE) and disciple-making movements (DMM) so disciples multiply and communities are transformed, becoming spiritually, physically, relationally, economically and environmentally healthy.
City-Wide Kingdom Collaboration Room 164	Developing the Kingdom in the Community James Gleason What does it look like to gather churches together for the greater good of the kingdom and the impact of the gospel on the local community? Learn how churches can work together for their own good and the betterment of the community.	Working for Shalom in Communities around the World Greg Burch As followers of Jesus we are called to participate in God's redemptive purposes in our cities and around the world. Thus we seek to foster the restoration of "shalom" as we explore peace with God, self, others and God's good creation. Peacebuilding is an integral aspect of Christian witness in the world today.		Uniting the Church in the City to Bring Transformation Steve and Patti Buss See how the Holy Spirit is moving all over the globe, uniting the Church in a city to functional unity. From Canada, to England, India and South Africa, as well as Oregon, this work of prayer and collaboration is bringing transformation to cities around the world.	Sustaining City-Wide Rhythms of Prayer and Justice Steve and Patti Buss Prayer and mission go hand in hand. How can churches in the same city pray together with measurable impact? One Church - One Day is a fruitful way for God's people to pray in agreement for their city. Hear testimonies and be equipped to mobilize your community to pray together.
Cross-Cultural Training Room 202	Babel Forward and Babel Reversed Mark Hedinger With increased cultural diversity, local churches need the skills of "foreign missions" to reach their own neighborhoods. This workshop series will introduce some of the most important of those cross-cultural skills for churches within the U.S.	I'm Supposed to Love THAT Neighbor as Myself??? Natalie Kim Look at the five elements of healthy relationships, how different cultures define healthy relationships and when it's best to flex to preserve those relationships versus holding firm to vital distinctives.		Managing the "Household" Terry Steele Every household (or church) has its way to balance the flow of resources with the flow of family needs. But cultures differ on how to find the balance. For example, what are "normal" work hours? How do we provide for the next generation? How many people are considered part of the household?	Building Bridges: Communication in the Multicultural community Karen Hedinger Five lessons of cross cultural communication that can serve the intercultural local church as well: appreciating story, appreciating history, one step at a time, be involved, and three sides of empathy.
Developing Senders Room 203	The Senders' Mandate Peggy Spiers If God isn't leading you to be a missionary "goer," what about being a sender? This interactive session will examine seven passages of Scripture to explore how senders fit in.	The Sending Team Peggy Spiers What does a sending team look like? Why do churches and missionaries need sending teams? Exodus 25 helps demonstrate the "people chain."		Senders, Do You Have Skin in the Game? Peggy Spiers What does it look like for a layperson to "care well" as a sender? How can we talk securely with and about our missionaries? What are good questions to ask them? What do the "one anothers" of the New Testament have to do with it?	Practical Next Steps in Sending Peggy Spiers Whether you are a beginner at "sending" missionaries or have you been at it for a long time, where do we go from here? What can we do next? How can we send out others "in a manner worthy of God" (1 John 3)? Let's brainstorm.

Communicating Missions to the Church

Nikole Hahn

Whether you are a pastor, missions team, a missionary, an administrator at your church or a church member passionate about missions, learn how to reframe the story of what God is doing around the world to share in email and social media, even by video.

How to Use Mailchimp to Share Your Message

Nikole Hahn

Missionaries with many organizations use Mailchimp. Learn how you can use this tool to make disciples, communicate with partners and start building a support team while you decide to go with a mission organization. You will learn why data and frequency matter.

How to Use Social Media to Make Disciples

Nikole Hahn

Did you know that social media gives missionaries the opportunity to start building relationships before they even get to the field? Learn how to use social media to disciple partners, your neighbors, your community and the people group you wish to reach.

Five Simple Habits to Change on Social Media

Nikole Hahn

Explore five new habits related to social media use that will help you be a light to your friends and followers, support your local church and help you grow spiritually, too.

Discipling New Believers
Room 175

Relationship, Not Religion

Carly Powne

Learn how to ground new believers so that they will have an active faith in Jesus Christ. Help them make the critical transition from thinking of Christianity as a religion to seeing it as a lifelong relationship with Jesus Christ.

What Is the Gospel?

Rich Gardner

"Before Luis Palau went to glory, I asked him, 'What is the gospel? Believe Jesus died for your sin, or believe God that Jesus dies for your sins?' He said, 'Good question,' and we discussed it. The difference can affect your life going forward."

Teaching Prayer from a Relational Point of View

Endeshaw Areko

Prayer is usually taught as a duty and steeped in facts. Discover how you can encourage new believers to develop a close relationship with God through the joy of prayer, instead.

Orientation to the Christian Life

Rich Gardner

When you start a new job, you go through an orientation so you will know the company's values and how to be successful there. Let's apply that to new believers beginning the Christian life. How are we different now? How are we expected to live differently? What do the New Testament writers say to orient us?

DMM: Disciple
Making
Movements
Room 163

Helping Insiders Transform Entire Households

Brent Hofen

In multiplicative, disciple-making environments, it is important to work through the lost. Can a person of peace who is open to the things of God lead others towards Jesus before they have fully committed their own life to him? Explore the difference between addition and multiplication.

Contagious Disciple Making

Paul Watson

Despite the incredible efforts of Christians to remain relevant in a postmodern and post-church age, fewer people are looking to churches to provide answers to their deepest questions. The Church must go to them.

How Everyday Christians
Become World-Changing
Disciplers

Wayne Shinseki

Explore disciple-making principles and tools that are launching movements around the world today. Discover ways to use your business and ministry to provide access and shine the light of Jesus right where you are.

How Disciple-Making Teams Create Momentum for Mission

Russ Richmond

Successful missionaries make disciples and work in teams before they go. How can we cast vision, train believers and get them engaged in DMM in their neighborhood before they launch to the nations? How to develop mobilization pathways in your church, among the lost and from your home.

Effective
Evangelism
Room 161

One Thing: The Urgency of the Gospel

Alan Greene

The world is in desperate need of the message of the gospel. It is our only hope. Join Alan as he shares why the time is now to remain focused on just one thing: to share your faith with everyone everywhere.

Equipped with a Purpose

Alpha Hayward

Jesus commissioned his disciples to go and make disciples. When Jesus ascended into Heaven, he gave us the Holy Spirit. What happened in the book of Acts at Pentecost was not just a powerful experience, it was power for evangelism. The book of Acts is still being written with YOU!

Raising Your Evangelistic Temperature

Desmond Henry

Leadership and survival have become synonymous in our culture. We were not made for maintenance alone! God's mission requires commitment, faithfulness and effective follow through. Join a facilitated conversation on healthy, sustainable and scalable evangelism strategies.

Evangelizing Muslims

Sara Abdallah

Sara, a leader with Crescent Project, was raised in the Middle East in a Muslim family. Her story of coming to faith gives profound insight to any Christian who would like to know from a Biblical and relational level how to personally and credibly address the spiritual curiosity Muslims have about Jesus and our faith in Christ.

Ethnic and Cultural Challenges in Missions
Room 208

Ethnic and Cultural Challenges in Missions

Adrian Reeves

Learn about the historical background of ethnic and cultural challenges in churches and missions. Find practical solutions for moving beyond conflict to fulfill the Great Commission.

Worldviews: The 3D Gospel

Sonji Pass

Christians need a full, three-dimensional understanding of the gospel. This workshop will focus on how the Bible speaks to cultures of guilt, shame and fear to enhance your cross-cultural ministry among the nations.

Empowering Indigenous Leadership in Missions

Rickie Bradshaw and Don Allsman

Let's have a practical discussion about strategies and resources you can use to equip and empower indigenous leadership in urban and overseas missions.

Panel Discussion: Culture and Mission

Sonji Pass, Don Allsman and Rickie Bradshaw

Join a panel discussion exploring the impact of culture and ethnicity on the effectiveness of urban and overseas missions.

Plenary Speakers Auditorium

The Future of MissionConnexion &
MissionWorks

Bill MacLeod and Brian Heerwagen

Hear more from Bill and Brian as they share and answer your questions about the merger and collaboration between these fruitful mobilization ministries.

Q & A with
Dr. Eric Anthony Joseph

Hear more from Rev. Dr. Joseph, the newest president of Multnomah University and the plenary speaker for our Friday night session.

Jesus Crashed into My World with a Double Portion

Mary Ho

Radical missions starts with a clashing encounter with Jesus. When Mary was 17, Jesus crashed into her darkness and set her free from addiction, bondage and depression and gave her a "double portion" to replace her shame. Now he calls you and me to take His double portion to the nations.

Q & A with
Steve Richardson

Hear more from Steve Richardson with Pioneers, who is the plenary speaker for the Saturday afternoon session and the author of the new book "Is the Commission Still Great?"

Reaching Mormons and Jehovah Witnesses Room 213	Mormonism 101: What Mormons Believe Marshall Almarode Learn the basics about Mormons and what they believe and be introduced to the "Who" principle. Audience questions are encouraged.	Answering Your Questions about Mormonism Marshall Almarode Why don't Christians feel successful at witnessing to Mormons? How much do you need to know about Mormonism to be a good witness? Bring any questions you have about Mormonism and we'll explore them together.	Witnessing to Jehovah's Witnesses Skip Mitchell Hear an expose on the lies and deception embraced by members of the Watchtower organization and explore how to use what you learn to draw out those who follow this group.	Growing Up in a Jehovah's Witness Home Isaac Saavedra Isaac will share his experiences and observations from growing up in a Jehovah's Witness home. Topics will include communion, the cross, holidays and life after death.
Refugee Response Room 209	Five Disciplines of Faithful Presence among Refugees Ahshuwah Hawthorne God has brought the unreached within reach but many Christians and churches don't know where to start. Learn the five disciplines of faithful presence that will equip you and your church to make disciples of the nations locally, then globally.	Why Relationship Is Crucial to Reaching Muslims Marshall Stack Take a look at the opportunities that arise as you walk through life with people, particularly those from countries where they had no access to the gospel. Explore Jesus's model of discipleship to conversion and make practical applications to our modern context.	Welcome Your Refugee Neighbor with Lavish Hospitality Eileen Baker and Lily Rees Followers of Jesus worship a God who is lavishly hospitable and calls us to welcome strangers. It sounds lovely, but what does it mean? Let's look at biblical hospitality and practical and culturally sensitive ways to be good hosts to refugee friends.	Refugee Response: A Panel Discussion Allan Cook Hear from workshop speakers and others about how to get involved with refugees. Bring your questions and join the discussion.
Salty Storytelling Room 210	Authentic Storytelling: Share Your Personal Jesus Stories Meredith Johnson Jesus was never without a story when he spoke (Mark 4:34). Are we intentional and ready to share our Jesus stories with friends, neighbors and colleagues? Be equipped to tell stories that are spiritually obvious but not spiritually obnoxious.	Salty Storytelling: Everyday Conversation to Spark Spiritual Thirst Christina Zeeb Peter said, "Always be ready to give an answer to everyone who asks about the hope that you have." What if people asked YOU about Jesus? Practice natural spiritual conversations for everyday and everywhere that cause people to ask.	Telling the Gospel as a Story . . . in 10 Sentences or Less Christina Zeeb If someone asks, "Who is Jesus?" what do you tell them? Are you ready to quickly and comfortably share His story in a way the person in front of you can understand? Jesus is the Greatest Story Ever Told! Let's practice telling it together so we can be ready to give an answer to everyone who asks about the hope that we have.	Using "Jesus Stories" to Connect with Refugees Meredith Johnson The nations are coming to our neighborhoods and need good neighbors like us. We can't miss this opportunity. Discover practical ways to love refugees through sharing Jesus stories in winsome, engaging ways.
Short-Term Mission Room 162	Is a Mission Trip "What's Next" for Your Church? Tory Ruark Explore a variety of readiness and excellence factors you need to consider before you assume a mission trip is "what's next." Make your next mission trip one that will honor God, your hosts and those you serve.	Re-Imagining Short-Term Missions Forrest Inslee Are the things we do in the name of short-term missions really missions at all? Do our mission trips reflect a respectful, co-equal and collaborative stance toward those we go to serve? We'll ask these hard but honest questions and consider what an STM overhaul might look like	Short-Term Missions in Honor/Shame Cultures Don Johnson Two-thirds of the world has an honor/shame worldview, but short- and mid-term missionaries typically come from guilt/innocence cultures. Examine honor and shame, share training tips, and discuss sharing the gospel with people who seek release from shame more than forgiveness of guilt.	Debriefing: Get the Most from Your Short-term Missions Investment Don Johnson Churches and agencies invest a lot in short and mid-term missionaries. Debriefing and follow-through helps capture and retain any growth that takes place in the lives of the participants and channels that into ongoing ministry. We'll share a philosophy and tools for a quality debriefing experience.
The Persecuted Church Room 206	People of the Cross on the Indian Subcontinent Svein Bjorge Despite torture, imprisonment and sometimes martyrdom, they still sing "I have decided to follow Jesus. No turning back, no turning back." From the prophets of old to the Apostle Thomas to tens of thousands whose stories are untold, they were faithful to the end.	Christian Persecution and Martyrdom in the 21st Century Matthew Tallman Get a historic overview of Christian martyrdom. Take a close look at the persecution of Christians in different parts of the world today with a focus on missionaries working in restricted-access nations.	Missionary Courage in the Face of Persecution Michael Maksimowicz One definition of "courage" is being afraid but going anyway. Many indigenous evangelists and pastors are persecuted as they preach the gospel in places culturally or religiously hostile. Yet they count the cost and go. Hear stories of courage, persecution and victory.	Reaching the Refugees Among Us Matthew Tallman How can we effectively reach some of the most unreached and persecuted people in the world for Christ? They may be right in our own neighborhoods. Let's reach out to the refugees and immigrants among us.
Transformative Coaching Room 201	Here I Am . . . What's Next: How Coaching Can Help Linda Miller What is God inviting you into next? What are your next steps? This interactive workshop will use a coach approach to clarify what you're hearing from God and encourage you to take the next steps. Includes a live coaching demonstration and an opportunity for practical application.	Coaching as a Transformational Process Marissa Gleason Introducing a simple coaching model that will equip you to create new awareness that leads to action, in both personal and ministry roles. Come experience this highly engaging workshop!	Coaching: Strengthening Your Ministry Skill Set Ben Olsen This interactive session will be focused on the coaching mindset, answering the questions, What is a coaching mindset? Where can I embrace something new? How will I put this awareness into action?	Coaching: See It in Action! Marissa Gleason Our final workshop will include an overview of the coaching process and skills and several live coaching demonstrations. You will see different coaching styles and discover just how quickly God can work through powerful questions from people like you.

Norm Cook
1929-2022

Brent Strawsburg
1957-2022

Norm Cook, "Mr. Missions" Professor at Multnomah University from 1981 to 2004, first served as a missionary in Taiwan with his wife and family for 30 years. Norm was part of the inception of MissionConnexion in 2001 and served on our first Executive team. We are indebted to his investment over the years.

Dr. Brent Strawsburg came up from Southern California each year and faithfully led the Apologetics Workshop Track for 8 years (2015-2022) and presented Apologetics conferences throughout the Northwest during the rest of the year. The result was that many were able to explain their Christian faith with grace and confidence to an unbelieving culture thirsty for truth.

Together MissionWorks

We know that in all things
God works for the good of those who love him,
who have been called according to his purpose. ROMANS 8:28

If you're mission minded, you already know mission work takes a lot of know-how.
