Mission: Connecting God's people to mission through regional conferences and focus events so that increasing numbers of believers are actively serving in areas of the world's greatest Gospel need and opportunity.

Welcome to MissionConnexion at Grace Community Church!

We are excited to host this impactful event at our church. We have a phrase at Grace that reminds us of who we are becoming. "We are here to Learn the words of Jesus, Live the ways of Jesus, and Love like Jesus!" We have a passion to grow people to live for King Jesus both locally and globally. Grace is a church committed to growing disciples and engaging with people around the world, and we are anticipating Kingdom fruitfulness to come from this awesome event. "The harvest is plentiful, but the workers are few. Ask the Lord of the harvest to send out workers into his harvest field." Matthew 9:37-38

Des Wadsworth

Lead Pastor, Grace Community Church

Greetings and welcome to the 3rd annual MissionConnexion Southwest!

We are honored to have you join us and we are thankful to have Grace Community Church host this year's event. This conference has purposely been designed with you in mind. Whether through corporate worship, or hearing from keynote speakers or workshop presenters, it is our prayer you will have a living encounter with King Jesus which will fuel a deeper obedience to His purposes locally and globally. This year's theme is "Who's Writing Your Story?" The premise of this theme is to let go and to let God. We live in a day and age where many people want to curate their own story whether through social media or through their own means of production. MissionConnexion believes that God writes a much better story than any one of us on our own. We hope this weekend fuels a deeper desire for you to surrender to what He wants to do through your life and you will let Him ultimately write your story. If you have questions or simply want to reach out to someone in regards to something you heard or have been challenged with from this conference, please feel free to do so at Jake@MissionConnexion.global. May you be blessed,

Jake Embleton

He taught many things the night before going to the cross, but prayed one. John 17 is surprisingly specific and strategic in what Jesus thought was most important. Includes real life stories of Jesus' prayer being answered.	Jn17 Practical Steps Dave Drum J17 Ministries I have had the unique privilege of being able to give full time attention to seeing Jesus' John 17 prayer for unity answered in my home town of Tucson and any place else God gives me influence. Taking “Next Steps” after MissionConnexion Southwest

Saturday, November 4, 2023 5:30 - 6:30 PM

The world’s problems can seem overwhelming and daunting at times. As followers of Jesus, we desire to jump in and serve but many times we struggle with questions of where do I serve? How? What capacity? Will I have enough time? Can I use my work-related skills and gifts to bless others?

This conference is designed with the desire to help you to have clarity and discernment in where you believe God may be leading you.

Some people are sure of their missions-related role and that is great. We hope you find a number of resources to help you on your journey. Others are not sure of what their role is at this stage of life and for the future.

Those of us working together for this conference are committed to see tangible, God-honoring results. We have been praying regularly that God would use this time to speak to you and that you would then take the “next steps” as a result of this time together.

We have identified six areas of missions-related roles that are possible “next steps”: Learner, Pray-er, Mobilizer, Sender, Welcomer and Goer. In order to make this as practical as possible we have scheduled a time block for each person to attend a workshop on one of these six areas from 5:30 - 6:30 PM Saturday, November 4, 2023.

Our prayer and desire is that each person would be seeking God’s direction while going through the various sessions of this conference, giving some prayerful thought to which of those six sessions would be the best fit.

More will be explained during the conference. Included below are some questions that may help in determining your possible “next steps”.

Am I a Learner

... with a sense that God is leading me to a future Great Commission role but realizing that right now I need to be serious about deepening my relationship with Jesus, studying and learning from the Word of God and learn “... what God is doing in the world today while seeking what role He has for me to reach the unreached for Christ?”

Location: Room 201

Am I a Pray-er

... with a God-given passion to pray for the unreached, to pray for more workers for the harvest, to pray for the workers I know, to pray for God’s will to be done on earth with a willingness to make prayer a priority time commitment?

Location: Amphitheater

Am I a Mobilizer

... with a great desire to help people find their calling, encourage others, help them with guidance, direction, and a listening ear, willing to pray with them and for them and to stand with them in their difficulties and their victories and help see the local church mobilized into greater service for the Kingdom of God?

Location: MPR

Am I a Sender

... with a great concern for the lost of this world, a desire to use my resources to see people be sent to share the gospel and willingness to learn to sacrifice in order that the good news of Jesus’ love and redemption can be sent out around the world?

Location: Room 202

Am I a Welcomer

... with a passion to engage with people who are coming to America from other cultures, to see this as a way to show the love of Jesus and to share with them the plan of salvation, to commit my time and energy to these relationships, seeing this as the same level of commitment made by those called to minister in another country and culture?

Location: Library

Am I a Goer

... with a willingness to humble myself, to learn how to lovingly and sacrificially cross cultures to live in such a way so others can hear the good news of Jesus, being passionate for the cause of Christ, purposeful and determined to be obedient—no matter what the cost— and willing to prepare well?

Location: Lamb Chapel

ETHAN COLLINS | GLOBAL OUTREACH PASTOR | SCOTTSDALE BIBLE CHURCH

MissionConnexion Southwest has been an amazing supplement to what we are trying to do among the nations through our Church's global ministry. The fact that MissionConnexion's vision is to keep the local Church "in the driver's seat" for global ministry makes it unique. We are feeling that here in Phoenix in the few years the conference has been in our city. I praise God for what He is doing through building up this network and bringing MissionConnexion Southwest to Arizona!
